

DOMINION DRACULA

ROSÉ

WHITE WINE - DRY

ORIGIN: The wine is prepared from grapes of Syrah and Pinot Noir variety coming from the vineyard located in Dealu Mare region - Romania, the seventh largest country producer of grapes in the world.

VINEYARD: Dealu Mare vineyards make up the most compact Romanian viticulture area (about 14,500 hectares). The climate is temperate continental with cold winters and hot summers, with average annual solar radiation of 125 kcal/cm², average annual temperatures of 10°C heat amplitude monthly average of 24°C and an absolute magnitude of extremes over 70°C. An average of 2200 sunshine hours from which 1635 are in warm semester. The annual amount of warm and heat is over 4000 degrees. Annual rainfall is around 500-550 mm mainly in winter-spring period.

WINE MAKING PROCESS: Grapes were harvested mid of September. Alcoholic fermentation occurred in stainless steel followed by few months of ageing on lees. Free run juice drained directly from the press was used for each variety.

WINEMAKER: This wine is produced by a famous Romania winemaker Aurelia Visinescu, known for her wines which reflects the character of the wine variety with strong influence of the terroir. Her enthusiasm for winemaking knowledge and the story behind every harvest turned into passion which Aurelia has been nourishing for more than 20 years. Her native curiosity, the will to know and the experience achieved in time brought Aurelia international recognition. The wines bearing Aurelia Visinescu signature are special wines, with personality; they are made with care, dedication and artistry.

TASTING: Pink salmon in color, rich in intense raspberry and strawberry aromas. Full creamy taste, with some spice hints, long lasting finish. It is recommended to be served at the temperature of 6-8°C, accompanied by light dishes based on vegetables, barbecues, easy sauces or spicy food.
